ORDER¹

The General Counsel's Motion for Summary Judgment and request for oral argument, joined by the Charging Party Union, are denied. The General Counsel and the Union have failed to establish that there are no genuine issues of material fact and that they are entitled to judgment as a matter of law.²

Dated, Washington, D.C., December 14, 2015.

¹ The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

² The Respondent contends in its answer to the complaint and its opposition to the motion that its name is incorrect in the case caption. In addition, the Party-in-Interest maintains in its brief in opposition to the motion that it should be referred to as Screen Actors Guild-American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, AFL-CIO (SAG--AFTRA). These assertions are among the issues of fact that can be resolved at the hearing.
